

Please do not terminate the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.
It should be illegal to solicit goods without prior consent.
I resorted to turning off the ringer of my phone before signing up for the no call list. This is the best legislation our government has provided.